

112TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 5956

To provide safe, fair, and responsible procedures and standards for resolving claims of state secrets privilege.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 18, 2012

Mr. NADLER (for himself, Mr. PETRI, Mr. CONYERS, Ms. ZOE LOFGREN of California, Mr. FILNER, Mr. HINCHEY, and Mr. STARK) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

A BILL

To provide safe, fair, and responsible procedures and standards for resolving claims of state secrets privilege.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “State Secrets Protec-5 tion Act”.

6 SEC. 2. AMENDMENT TO THE RULES OF EVIDENCE.

7 Article 5 of the Federal Rules of Evidence is amended 8 by adding at the end the following:

1 “Rule 503. State Secrets Privilege

2 “(a) IN GENERAL.—In any civil action brought in 3 Federal or State court, the Government has a privilege
4 to refuse to give information and to prevent any person
5 from giving information only if the Government shows
6 that public disclosure of the information that the Govern-
7 ment seeks to protect would be reasonably likely to cause 8 significant harm to the national defense or the diplomatic 9 relations of the United States.

10 “(b) PROTECTION OF SECRETS.—

11 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The court shall take steps
12 to protect sensitive information that comes before 13 the court in connection with proceedings under this 14 Rule. These steps may include reviewing evidence or 15 pleadings and hearing arguments ex parte, issuing 16 protective orders, placing material under seal, and 17 applying security procedures established under the 18 Classified Information Procedures Act for classified
19 information to protect the sensitive information.

20 “(2) IN CAMERA PROCEEDINGS.—All hearings
21 and other proceedings under this Rule may be con-
22 ducted in camera, as needed to protect information 23 that may be subject to the privilege.

24 “(3) PARTICIPATION OF COUNSEL.—Participa-
25 tion of counsel in proceedings under this Rule may 26 be limited if the court determines that the limitation

1 is a necessary step to protect information the Gov-2 ernment asserts is protected by the privilege or that 3 supports the claim of privilege.

4 “(4) GUARDIAN AD LITEM.—Where counsel is 5 excluded from a proceeding, the court shall have dis-6 cretion to appoint a guardian ad litem to represent 7 the absent litigant’s interests, drawing, in consulta-8 tion with the excluded nongovernmental party, from 9 a previously generated list of attorneys who have 10 been granted required security clearances in the past 11 and have agreed to serve in this capacity. The 12 guardian ad litem shall not discuss the information 13 claimed as privileged or its content with any non-14 governmental party or nongovernmental party’s 15 counsel.

16 “(5) PRODUCTION OF ADEQUATE SUBSTITUTE
17 PENDING RESOLUTION OF THE CLAIM OF PRIVI-
18 LEGE.—If, at any point during its consideration of 19 the Government’s claim, the court determines that 20 disclosure of information to a party or counsel, or 21 disclosure of information by a party that already 22 possesses it, presents a risk of a harm described in 23 subsection (a) that cannot be addressed through less 24 restrictive means provided in this subsection, the 25 court may require the Government to produce an

1 adequate substitute, such as a redacted version,
2 summary of the information, or stipulation regard-3 ing the relevant facts, if the court deems such a sub-4 stitute feasible. The substitute must be reviewed and 5 approved by the court and must provide counsel with 6 a substantially equivalent opportunity to assess and 7 challenge the Government's claim of privilege as 8 would the protected information.

9 “(c) ASSERTION OF THE PRIVILEGE.—

10 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Government may as-11 sert the privilege in connection with any claim in a 12 civil action to which it is a party or may intervene 13 in a civil action to which it is not a party to do so.

14 “(2) SUPPORTING AFFIDAVITS.—If the Govern-
15 ment asserts the privilege, the Government shall pro-
16 vide the court with an affidavit signed by the head 17 of the executive branch agency with responsibility 18 for, and control over, the information asserted to be 19 subject to the privilege. In the affidavit, the head of 20 the agency shall explain the factual basis for the 21 claim of privilege. The Government shall make pub-
22 lic an unclassified version of the affidavit.

23 “(d) PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS.—

24 “(1) PRELIMINARY REVIEW BY COURT.—Once
25 the Government has asserted the privilege, and be-

1 fore the court makes any determinations under sub-2 section (e), the court shall undertake a preliminary 3 review of the information the Government asserts is 4 protected by the privilege and provide the Govern-
5 ment an opportunity to seek protective measures 6 under this Rule. After any initial protective meas-
7 ures are in place, the court shall proceed to the con-8 sideration of additional preliminary matters under 9 this subsection.

10 “(2) CONSIDERATION OF WHETHER TO AP-11 POINT SPECIAL MASTER OR EXPERT WITNESS.—The 12 court shall consider whether the appointment of a 13 special master with appropriate expertise or an ex-14 pert witness, or both, would facilitate the court’s du-15 ties under this Rule.

16 “(3) INDEX OF MATERIALS.—The court may 17 order the Government to provide a manageable index 18 of the information that the Government asserts is 19 subject to the privilege. The index must correlate 20 statements made in the affidavit required under this 21 Rule with portions of the information the Govern-
22 ment asserts is subject to the privilege. The index
23 shall be specific enough to afford the court an ade-24 quate foundation to review the basis of the assertion 25 of the privilege by the Government.

1 “(4) PREHEARING CONFERENCES.—After the 2 preliminary review, the court shall hold one or more 3 conferences with the parties to—

4 “(A) determine any steps needed to protect 5 sensitive information;

6 “(B) define the issues presented by the 7 Government’s claim of privilege, including 8 whether it is possible to allow the parties to 9 complete nonprivileged discovery before deter-
10 mining whether the claim of privilege is valid;

11 “(C) order disclosure to the court of any-12 thing needed to assess the claim, including all 13 information the Government asserts is protected 14 by the privilege and other material related to 15 the Government’s claim;

16 “(D) resolve any disputes regarding par-
17 ticipation of counsel or parties in proceedings 18 relating to the claim, including access to the 19 Government’s evidence and arguments;

20 “(E) set a schedule for completion of dis-21 covery related to the Government’s claim; and 22 “(F) take other steps as needed, such as 23 ordering counsel or parties to obtain security 24 clearances.

1 “(e) PROCEDURES AND STANDARD FOR ASSESSING
2 THE PRIVILEGE CLAIM.—

3 “(1) HEARING.—The court shall conduct a 4 hearing to determine whether the privilege claim is 5 valid.

6 “(2) BASIS FOR RULING.—

7 “(A) GENERALLY.—The court may not de-8 termine that the privilege is valid until the 9 court has reviewed—

10 “(i) except as provided in subpara-
11 graph (B), all of the information that the 12 Government asserts is privileged;

13 “(ii) the affidavits, evidence, memo-
14 randa and other filings submitted by the 15 parties related to the privilege claim; and 16 “(iii) any other evidence that the 17 court determines it needs to rule on the 18 privilege.

19 “(B) SAMPLING IN CERTAIN CASES.—

20 Where the volume of information the Govern-
21 ment asserts is privileged precludes a timely re-
22 view, or the court otherwise determines a review 23 of all of that information is not feasible, the 24 court may substitute a sufficient sampling of 25 the information if the court determines that

1 there is no reasonable possibility that review of 2 the additional information would change the 3 court’s determination on the privilege claim and 4 the information reviewed is sufficient to enable 5 the court to make the independent assessment
6 required by this subsection.

7 “(3) STANDARD.—In ruling on the validity of 8 the privilege, the court shall make an independent 9 assessment of whether the harm identified by the 10 Government, as required by subsection (a), is rea-11 sonably likely to occur should the privilege not be 12 upheld. The court shall weigh testimony from Gov-13 ernment experts in the same manner as it does, and 14 along with, any other expert testimony.

15 “(4) BURDEN OF PROOF.—The Government
16 shall have the burden of proof as to the nature of 17 the harm and as to the likelihood of its occurrence.

18 “(f) EFFECT OF COURT DETERMINATION.—

19 “(1) IN GENERAL.—If the court determines 20 that the privilege is not validly asserted, the court 21 shall issue appropriate orders regarding the disclo-
22 sure of the information to a nongovernmental party
23 and its admission at trial, subject to the other rules 24 of evidence, with the right to interlocutory appeal as 25 provided in subsection (g) for any such orders. If the 1 court determines that the privilege is validly as-2 serted, that information shall not be disclosed to a 3 nongovernmental party or the public.

4 “(2) NONPRIVILEGED SUBSTITUTE.—

5 “(A) COURT CONSIDERATION OF SUB-
6 STITUTE.—If the court finds that the privilege
7 is validly asserted and it is possible to craft a 8 nonprivileged substitute, such as those de-9 scribed in subsection (b)(5), for the privileged 10 information that would provide the parties a 11 substantially equivalent opportunity to litigate
12 the case, the court shall order the Government 13 to produce the substitute to the satisfaction of 14 the court.

15 “(B) REFUSAL TO PROVIDE.—In a civil ac-16 tion brought against the Government, if the 17 court orders the Government to provide a non-18 privileged substitute for information and the 19 Government fails to comply, in addition to any 20 other appropriate sanctions, the court shall find 21 against the Government on the factual or legal 22 issue to which the privileged information is rel-23 evant. If the action is not brought against the 24 Government, the court shall weigh the equities

1 and make appropriate orders as provided in 2 paragraph (4).

3 “(3) OPPORTUNITY TO COMPLETE DIS-
4 COVERY.—The court shall not resolve any issue or 5 claim and shall not grant a motion to dismiss or mo-
6 tion for summary judgment based on the state se-7 crets privilege and adversely to any party against 8 whom the Government’s privilege claim has been 9 upheld until that party has had a full opportunity to 10 complete nonprivileged discovery and to litigate the 11 issue or claim to which the privileged information is 12 relevant without regard to that privileged informa-13 tion.

14 “(4) APPROPRIATE ORDERS IN THE INTEREST
15 OF JUSTICE.—After reviewing all available evidence, 16 and only after determining that privileged informa-
17 tion, for which it is impossible to create a nonprivi-18 leged substitute, is necessary to decide a factual or 19 legal issue or claim, the court shall weigh the equi-20 ties and make appropriate orders in the interest of 21 justice, such as striking the testimony of a witness, 22 finding in favor of or against a party on a factual
23 or legal issue to which the information is relevant, 24 or dismissing a claim or counterclaim. This para-
25 graph does not permit an award of money damages

1 against a party based in whole or in part on privi-
2 leged information that was not disclosed to that 3 party.

4 “(g) INTERLOCUTORY APPEAL.—

5 “(1) IN GENERAL.—The courts of appeal shall 6 have jurisdiction of an appeal from a decision or 7 order of a district court determining that the state
8 secrets privilege is not validly asserted, sanctioning 9 a refusal to provide an adequate or nonprivileged
10 substitute required under this Rule, or refusing pro-11 tective steps sought by the Government under this 12 Rule pending the resolution of the claim of state se-13 crets privilege.

14 “(2) APPEAL.—

15 “(A) IN GENERAL.—An appeal taken
16 under this section either before or during trial 17 shall be expedited by the court of appeals.

18 “(B) DURING TRIAL.—If an appeal is 19 taken during trial, the district court shall ad-20 journ the trial until the appeal is resolved and 21 the court of appeals—

22 “(i) shall hear argument on appeal as 23 expeditiously as possible after adjournment
24 of the trial by the district court;

1 “(ii) may dispense with written briefs
2 other than the supporting materials pre-3 viously submitted to the trial court;

4 “(iii) shall render its decision as expe-
5 ditiously as possible after argument on ap-6 peal; and

7 “(iv) may dispense with the issuance
8 of a written opinion in rendering its deci-9 sion.

10 “(h) REPORTING.—

11 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Consistent with applicable 12 authorities and duties, including those conferred by 13 the Constitution of the United States upon the execu-
14 tive and legislative branches, the Attorney General
15 shall report in writing to the Permanent Select Com-
16 mittee on Intelligence of the House of Representa-17 tives, the Select Committee on Intelligence of the 18 Senate, and the chairmen and ranking minority 19 members of the Committees on the Judiciary of the 20 House of Representatives and Senate on any case in 21 which the Government invokes a state secrets privi-
22 lege, not later than 30 calendar days after the date 23 of such assertion. Each report submitted under this 24 subsection shall include all affidavits filed under this 25 Rule by the Government.

1 “(2) OPERATION AND EFFECTIVENESS.—

2 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The Attorney General
3 shall deliver to the committees of Congress de-4 scribed in paragraph (1) a report concerning 5 the operation and effectiveness of this Rule and 6 including suggested amendments to the Rule.

7 “(B) DEADLINE.—The Attorney General
8 shall submit this report not later than 1 year 9 after the date of enactment of this Rule, and 10 every year thereafter until the date that is 3 11 years after that date of enactment. After the 12 date that is 3 years after that date of enact-13 ment, the Attorney General shall submit a re-
14 port under subparagraph (A) as necessary.

15 “(i) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—This Rule provides 16 the only privilege that may be asserted in civil cases based 17 on state secrets and the standards and procedures set 18 forth in this Rule apply to any assertion of the privilege.

19 “(j) APPLICATION.—This Rule applies to claims 20 pending on or after the date of enactment of this Rule.
21 A court also may relieve a party or its legal representative 22 from a final judgment, order, or proceeding that was 23 based, in whole or in part, on the state secrets privilege 24 if—

1 “(1) the motion for relief is filed with the ren-2 dering court within one year of the date of enact-3 ment of this Rule;

4 “(2) the underlying judgment, order, or pro-
5 ceeding from which the party seeks relief was en-6 tered after January 1, 2002; and 7 “(3) the claim on which the judgment, order, or 8 proceeding is based is—

9 “(A) against the Government; or

10 “(B) arises out of conduct by persons act-
11 ing in the capacity of a Government officer, em-12 ployee, or agent.”.

○