SECTION 1: GENERAL ISSUANCE INFORMATION

1.1. APPLICABILITY.

This issuance applies to OSD, the Military Departments, the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (CJCS) and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within DoD (referred to collectively in this issuance as the “DoD Components”).

SECTION 2: RESPONSIBILITIES AND FUNCTIONS

The USD(P) is the PSA and advisor to the Secretary of Defense for all matters regarding the formulation of national security and defense strategy and policy and the integration and oversight of DoD policy, strategy, plans, execution, and capabilities to achieve national security objectives. In the exercise of assigned responsibilities, the USD(P):

- a. Represents DoD in matters involving the National Security Council; the Department of State; and other Federal departments, agencies, and interagency groups with responsibility for national security policy.
- b. Serves as a member of the National Security Council Deputies' Committee and the Deputies' Committee for Crisis Management; advises the Secretary of Defense on crisis prevention and management, including planning for major areas of concern.
- c. Serves as a statutory member of the Nuclear Weapons Council and the Council on Oversight of the National Leadership Command, Control, and Communications System.
- d. Establishes DoD policy for defense-related international agreements and represents DoD in negotiating such agreements unless authority is otherwise delegated.
- e. Serves as an advisor to the Joint Requirements Oversight Council on matters within the USD(P)'s authority and expertise.
- f. Oversees:
 - (1) Development, implementation, and integration across DoD of the National Defense Strategy (as described by Section 113 of Title 10, U.S.C.) and strategic policy guidance for DoD activities across all geographic regions and military functions and domains.
 - (2) Integration of DoD activities into the National Security Strategy of the United States.
- g. Oversees the preparation of policy guidance for the development of the global force posture.
- h. In coordination with the General Counsel of the Department of Defense (GC DoD) and in accordance with Section 112b of Title 1, U.S.C., Part 181 of Title 22, Code of Federal Regulations, and DoDI 5530.03, authorizes the negotiation and conclusion of categories of international agreements and delegates authority to the DoD Component heads to approve negotiation and conclusion of categories of international agreements.
- i. Establishes DoD policy and positions for international negotiations and consultations on arms control implementation and DoD policy for compliance issues.
- j. Establishes DoD policy on the conduct of alliances, partnerships, and other defense relationships with foreign governments and their military establishments and international organizations; integrates plans and programs undertaken with those alliances, partnerships, and other defense relationships; develops regional security and defense strategy, policy, and posture guidance; provides advice and issues guidance to translate global and functional policies into region- and country-specific strategies; and oversees implementation of these matters in coordination with other appropriate DoD officials.

k. Establishes and oversees international security strategy and policy as well as political-military policy on issues of DoD interest relating to foreign governments and their defense establishments, including arrangements for the presence of U.S. forces, use of host-nation military facilities, access to host-nation territory and operating rights, and status protections for U.S. DoD personnel deployed abroad.

l. Assists the Secretary of Defense in carrying out assigned responsibilities as the U.S. National Security Authority for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), serves as the primary focal point for staff coordination on those NATO matters internal and external to DoD, and designates a senior official as the U.S. representative to the NATO Security Committee.

m. Provides oversight of strategic policy and guidance and overall resource allocation for security cooperation programs and activities of DoD, as assigned by the Secretary of Defense pursuant to Section 382(a) of Title 10, U.S.C.

n. Establishes DoD policy, issues guidance, and oversees the implementation of policies, strategy, and planning for DoD security cooperation programs and activities, in accordance with DoDD 5132.03; and manages and oversees the security cooperation assessment, monitoring, and evaluation enterprise, in accordance with DoDI 5132.14.

o. Establishes policy, in consultation with OSD and DoD Component heads as appropriate, and guidance for all security force assistance efforts, in accordance with DoDI 5000.68.

p. Develops policy guidance, through the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Homeland Defense and Global Security (ASD(HD&GS)), for the programs and activities of the DoD Cooperative Threat Reduction (CTR) Program authorized in the relevant sections of Chapter 48, Title 50, U.S.C. Ensures that the ASD(HD&GS) collaborates closely with the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Nuclear, Chemical, and Biological Defense Programs to facilitate effective oversight of the DoD CTR Program, in accordance with DoDDs 2060.02, 5105.62, 5111.13, and 5134.08.

q. Develops, coordinates, and oversees the implementation of DoD policy for stabilization, peace operations, civil affairs, humanitarian assistance, foreign disaster relief, global health engagement, humanitarian demining programs, responses to overseas migration emergencies, non-combatant evacuation activities, and explosive ordnance disposal training and technology, in accordance with DoDDs 2000.13, 2065.1E, 3000.05, 5100.46, 5160.62, and DoDIs 2000.30 and 2205.02.

r. Establishes and oversees DoD policy for developing stabilization capabilities and for DoD participation in stability operations, and ensures that stabilization-related capabilities are integrated into DoD campaign and contingency plans and broader U.S. Government planning efforts.

s. As the PSA to the Secretary of Defense for oversight of DoD information operations (IO), in accordance with DoDD 3600.01, serves as the primary coordination point of contact for DoD Components and other U.S. Government organizations for issues related to IO. Links OSD, Joint, and Military Service IO policies, capabilities, activities, and programs. Fully integrates IO with national and DoD strategy and planning functions.

t. Establishes DoD policy on military information support operations (MISO), in accordance with DoDI O-3607.02; reviews and approves all MISO programs conducted during peacetime or for contingencies short of declared war. Provides oversight of DoD's operational MISO budget.

u. Establishes DoD policy and procedures for, and coordinates and oversees the implementation of, the DoD Rewards Program authorized by Section 127b of Title 10, U.S.C. Pursuant to a delegation of authority from the Secretary of Defense, approves offering and making rewards in an amount of or with a value up to and including $2,000,000; and approves Combatant Commander requests to delegate authority to offer and make rewards to a commander of a directly subordinate command. These authorities may not be delegated further.

v. Ensures special access program (SAP) oversight by establishing a SAP Central Office and designating a SAP Central Office Director to be responsible for executing the responsibilities outlined in DoDD 5205.07:

(1) Exercises cognizance and oversight of all designated DoD policy SAPs and personnel granted access to these programs.

(2) Manages and oversees DoD Alternative Compensatory Control Measures, consistent with Volume 3 of DoD Manual (DoDM) 5200.01.

w. Oversees DoD space-related international cooperation activities and implementation of DoD strategy and plans related to space forces, systems, and their employment. Ensures the integration of space capabilities into the operational force structure and operations and contingency plans.

x. Provides policy guidance and oversight for deterrence and extended deterrence, including the posture, deployment, and employment of nuclear forces; missile defense capabilities; and critical enablers, including national leadership and nuclear command, control, and communications, continuity of operations (COOP), continuity of government (COG), and enduring constitutional government (ECG). Establishes cooperative relationships with allies and partners on COOP and COG. Reviews and evaluates plans, programs, and requirements for such forces, systems, and capabilities to ensure consistency with the strategy and policy.

y. Establishes DoD policy for developing and adjusting U.S. military capabilities and resources to align with national- and DoD-level strategy and priorities. Serves as the principal advisor for the planning phase of the DoD Planning, Programming, Budgeting, and Execution (PPBE) process; prepares and coordinates written Secretary of Defense planning guidance for prioritizing joint force capabilities, capacities, and resources, including through DoD Components' program objective memorandums; conducts force planning assessments to identify strategic and operational risk to the strategy and the programmed Joint Force, and seeks concepts, capabilities, and other ways and means to manage and mitigate near- and long-term risk; and monitors the degree to which DoD plans, programs, and budgets underwrite national and DoD-level strategy and priorities.

z. Establishes DoD policy and issues guidance for the preparation and review of all campaign plans and contingency plans, pursuant to Section 134(b)(2) of Title 10, U.S.C.

(1) Drafts, coordinates, and publishes the contingency planning guidance, as approved by the President. Such guidance will include the policy constraints and restraints for the nation's most pressing contingencies and will detail the regional policy priorities that drive day-to-day military activities.

(2) Provides policy direction to development of threat-based, resource-informed, integrated campaign and contingency plans.

(3) Oversees the process for preparing campaign and contingency plans throughout the plan development.

(4) Convenes plan reviews and supports Secretary of Defense plan reviews, including Combatant Command briefings to OSD PSAs and relevant OSD offices on the contingency plans to ensure the plans are based on sound policy foundation, are designed to meet the directed end-state, and are integrated with other relevant Combatant Command plans.

(5) Facilitates interagency engagement on campaign and contingency plans on behalf of DoD.

aa. Establishes DoD policy, issues guidance, and oversees the implementation of policies for combatting terrorism and irregular warfare.

ab. Establishes DoD policy for special operations activities. e. Coordinates all medical- and public-health-related matters with the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, in accordance with DoDD 5124.02.

3.2. OSD PSAS AND DOD COMPONENT HEADS.

The OSD PSAs and DoD Component heads coordinate with the USD(P) on all matters, under their purview, related to the responsibilities and functions and authorities assigned to the USD(P) in this issuance.

SECTION 4: AUTHORITIES

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Defense, and subject to his or her authority, direction, and control, and in accordance with DoD policies and issuances, the USD(P) is hereby delegated authority to exercise, within assigned responsibilities and functions, all authority of the Secretary of Defense derived from statute, Executive order (E.O.), or interagency agreement, except where specifically limited by statute or E.O. to the Secretary of Defense. The USD(P) is specifically delegated authority to:

a. Establish DoD policy through DoDIs, Directive-type Memorandums (DTMs), and rules published in the Federal Register, within the authorities and responsibilities assigned in this issuance and in accordance with DoDI 5025.01 or Administrative Instruction (AI) 102.

(1) In those documents, assign responsibilities related to the authorities and responsibilities in this issuance to other OSD PSAs and the DoD Component heads. Assignment of responsibilities in DoD issuances or rules published in the Federal Register to the Military Departments must be made through the Secretaries of those Departments. DoD issuances or rules published in the Federal Register assigning responsibilities to the Combatant Commands must be coordinated with the CJCS.

(2) DoDIs and DTMs must be fully coordinated in accordance with DoDI 5025.01. Rules published in the Federal Register must be fully coordinated with affected OSD and DoD Component heads and be consistent with AI 102.

(3) This authority may not be re-delegated.

b. Approve other DoDIs, DoDMs, and DTMs in areas of assigned responsibilities and functions that implement policy already established by a DoDD, DoDI, DTM, or policy memorandum issued by the Secretary or Deputy Secretary.

(1) In these documents, assign responsibilities related to the authorities and responsibilities in this issuance to other OSD PSAs and the DoD Component heads. Assignment of responsibilities in these DoD issuances to the Military Departments must be made through the Secretaries of those Departments. DoD issuances assigning responsibilities to the Combatant Commands must be coordinated with the CJCS.

(2) Such documents must be fully coordinated in accordance with DoDI 5025.01.

(3) This authority may only be further delegated to subordinate officials as specified in DoDI 5025.01.

c. Approve Federal Register publication of significant guidance documents as defined in E.O. 13891 and determined by the Office of Management and Budget. This authority may not be re-delegated.

d. Approve the Federal Register publication of documents other than rules and significant guidance documents (e.g., notices, orders, and non-significant guidance documents as defined by E.O. 13891 and determined by the Office of Management and Budget) in accordance with AI 102. Unless otherwise restricted by law, this authority may be further delegated only in writing to subordinate officials at or above the level of a general or flag officer, Senior Executive Service member, or equivalent.

e. Reissue, when necessary, in accordance with DoDI 5025.01, Chartering DoDDs for those OSD officials who were appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate and who are under the authority, direction, and control of the USD(P). This authority may not be re-delegated. The Chief Management Officer of the Department of Defense continues to develop and maintain these Chartering DoDDs, in accordance with DoDI 5025.01.

f. Communicate directly with other OSD PSAs and the DoD Component heads, as necessary, to carry out assigned responsibilities and functions, including transmitting requests for advice and assistance. Communications to the Military Departments must be transmitted through the Secretaries of the Military Departments or as otherwise provided in law or directed by the Secretary of Defense in other DoD issuances. Communications to the Combatant Commanders must be in accordance with DoDD 5100.01.

g. Communicate with other government officials, members of the public, and representatives of foreign governments, as appropriate, in carrying out assigned responsibilities and functions. Communications with representatives and members of the Legislative Branch must be conducted through the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Legislative Affairs, except for communications with the Defense Appropriations Committees, which must be coordinated with the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller)/Chief Financial Officer, Department of Defense.

h. Communicate with agencies of the executive branch and Congress on SAPs. For all SAP matters, the USD(P) must conduct communications with agencies of the executive branch and Congress, consistent with DoDD 5205.07.

i. Obtain reports and information, in accordance with DoDI 8910.01, as necessary, to carry out assigned responsibilities and functions.

j. Establish arrangements for DoD participation in non-DoD governmental programs for which the USD(P) is assigned primary DoD cognizance.

k. Enter into support agreements, as appropriate, for the effective performance of responsibilities and functions assigned to the USD(P), in accordance with DoDI 4000.19 and the February 13, 2020, Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

l. Designate an official from within the Office of the USD(P) to serve as the Executive Director of the Council of Governors, pursuant to E.O. 13528.

m. Grant waivers or reductions of nonrecurring cost recoupment charges and the authority for approving pro rata nonrecurring cost recoupment charges for major defense equipment, in accordance with Section 2751 of Title 22, U.S.C.; E.O. 13637; and DoDD 2140.02.

n. Exercise Top Secret original classification authority, and issue appropriate classification guidance, in accordance with E.O. 13526 and Volume 1 of DoDM 5200.01.

o. In accordance with the May 18, 2015, Secretary of Defense Memorandum, establish and oversee DoD policy for the DoD Rewards Program authorized by Section 127b of Title 10, U.S.C.

p. Determine whether the objectives of using counter-drug funds of a joint task force to support counterterrorism and CTOC activities relate significantly to the objectives of providing support for CD activities by that joint task force or any other joint task force, and to exercise waiver authority, in accordance with the October 26, 2015, Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

q. Exercise authorities supporting the South China Seas Initiative assigned to the Secretary of Defense, pursuant to Section 1263 of Public Law 114-92 and in accordance with the March 15, 2016, Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

r. Exercise authorities supporting civilian law enforcement agencies, in accordance with the June 28, 2016, Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

s. Exercise the authority assigned to the Secretary of Defense under Chapter 16 of Title 10, U.S.C., concerning security cooperation. This includes the authority: to approve security cooperation programs and activities; to obtain the concurrence of the Secretary of State; to make all necessary determinations, certifications, and notifications; and to submit reports required for program and activities pursuant to Section 382(a) of Title 10, U.S.C.

t. Execute the authority and responsibility assigned to the Secretary of Defense in the relevant sections of Chapter 48, Title 50, U.S.C., also known as the “Department of Defense Cooperative Threat Reduction Act,” relating to the authority to approve and make determinations concerning the use of funds, to vary amounts authorized, to approve the receipt and use of contributions, and to submit reports and notifications to Congress under the DoD CTR Program. This authority may be delegated further, in writing, only to other civilian DoD officials appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate.

u. Execute the authority to review and approve State drug interdiction and CD activities plans.

v. Pursuant to the undated Deputy Secretary of Defense Memorandum, execute the authority to designate the coordinator for cultural protection, consistent with Section 1279C of the NDAA for FY 2018.

w. Execute the authority to formulate assistance programs jointly with the Secretary of State (or designee) under the Global Security Contingency Fund, provide concurrence in such programs approved by the Secretary of State, approve the amount of the DoD contribution to such programs, and submit joint notifications and reports to Congress in accordance with the June 10, 2019, Secretary of Defense Memorandum.

x. Exercise, consistent with the February 25, 2020, Deputy Secretary of Defense memorandum, the authority of the Secretary of Defense pursuant to Section 1213 of the NDAA for FY 2020, related to certain payments in the event of injury or loss by civilians during military operations, including prescribing implementing regulations.
