ROD AND GUN CLUB OFFICERS ELECTED

One of our growing organizations in NSA and ASA is the Rod and Gun Club. At the last meeting which was held at the AHS Officers' Club on 26 April, the following officers were elected: President, Major Fred W. Young; Vice President, Mr. Estil E. Fulk; Treasurer, Captain Louis C. Dion; Secretary, Mr. John J. Burke.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in more healthful outdoor activities, furnish information on best places to fish, hunt, target shoot, and sponsor bay and ocean fishing trips.

With funds provided by the AHS Welfare Council, fresh and salt water fishing equipment has been purchased for loan to NSA and ASA employees. Any employee wishing to borrow a rod, reel, and line may do so by calling Employee Relations, Rm. 7127, Ext. 60624.

You may become a member of this new club by joining the NSA Welfare Council for $1.00. This not only entitles you to membership in the club but also to a discount card which will enable you to purchase fishing, hunting, and household items at a big saving.

There is excellent fishing and hunting of all kinds in this area. Join now!

To the Editor:

I am submitting the following questions for additional information on the Ft. Meade Air Strip.

Mr. J. K. Lewis
Office of Research and Development

Q. Will transportation to the "New Site" from the Ft. Meade Air Strip be provided?
This will have to be arranged by the individuals concerned. There are taxis based on the post and arrangements can be made with them.

Q. Is there, or will there be, communication facilities for closing and filing flight plans?
CAA facilities may be utilized. It is the opinion of Col. Anderson, G-3 Office, 2nd Army, that CAA is "cracking down" on civilian pilots who do not ordinarily file flight plans. This rule is made at Ft. Meade so that personnel here are not called out to search for a lost aircraft which has not filed a flight plan.

Q. Since a number of small planes have 2-way radios which can transmit on VHF, but can only receive on LF, would that be approved by Ft. Meade authorities?
Yes, but pilots must give the Ft. Meade tower a call and inform them that they cannot receive VHF signals and request VHF signals.

Q. Can a civilian private pilot (NSA employee) use the strip at this time if they want to make a trip to look the situation over (not the new site, but the Ft. Meade Air Strip)?
Yes, but previously mentioned rules must be followed.

Col. Anderson indicated that these rules and regulations are not always "hard and fast" ones, and some variations may be made. However, in the interest of Safety, it is to the advantage of all concerned that they be followed as closely as possible. - Ed.

The highest reward that God gives us for good work is the ability to do better.

DEVELOPMENT OF LEGISLATIVE PROPOSALS

The Senate has passed one of the most important bills affecting Federal employment that is before the Congress this session. S. 2665, a bill sponsored by Senator Carlson, Chairman of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, has been approved by the Senate and sent to the House of Representatives for consideration. Several amendments to the bill were adopted before passage. The most important provisions of the bill as it was approved by the Senate are:

- Repeal of the present requirement that employees with annual leave accumulations of over 30 days reduce their leave balances to 30 days within a reasonable period of time. The bill would permit employees to maintain leave accumulations not in excess of the amount to their credit at the begining of the current leave year. Employees who had less than 30 days leave to their credit at the beginning of the current leave year are not affected by the amendment. They may still accumulate up to 30 days annual leave (45 days for certain overseas employees) as is currently provided.

- Repeal of the Whitten Amendment.

- Elimination of the CPC Pay Schedule.

- Longevity pay for employees in grades up to and including GS-15, with more liberal eligibility requirements.

- A single awards system operated under the Civil Service Commission and including a Presidential award.

- Time and a half overtime pay on the first $5810 of Classification Act salaries.

- A minimum of two hours overtime pay for employees called to duty on a day off.

- An increase in the number of supergrade jobs to 550.

- Addition of ten percent night differential to holiday pay and periods of leave less than eight hours for Classification Act employees subject to night differentials.

- Up to $100 per year to purchase uniforms for employees required to wear them.

- Advanced inhiring rates for new employees when employees cannot be recruited at base rates.

The Senate Committee on Government Operations has reported out of committee and recommended passage of S. 3200. This bill, which amends section 3 of the Travel Expenses Act of 1949, would increase from $9 to $12 the maximum per diem allowance in lieu of subsistence for civilian employees on official travel within the United States. The purpose of this bill is to permit agencies to increase payments in those instances where more than $9 is needed to defray the expenses of employees required to travel to high-cost areas. Payment of $12 per diem would not be mandatory, but this bill would enable agencies to establish rates between $9 and $12 where the $9 rate is now inadequate. This bill was considered by the Senate on 19 April under the unanimous consent agreement and passed over because of objection to its passage. The bill will be considered again by the Senate.

H.R. 7774, a bill to establish a uniform system for the granting of incentive awards to officers and employees of the Government, has been passed by the House of Representatives and is now under consideration by the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee. The content of this bill was discussed in the April issue of the Newsletter.

Hearings on pay legislation are continuing. As yet there is no clear indication whether or not a general pay increase bill will be favorably reported out of either Senate or House Committee.

MULTI-MILLION DOLLAR COMMUNITY PLANNED AT O缎TON, MARYLAND

Plans for a multi-million dollar community at Piney Orchard near Odenton, were presented to the Board of County Commissioners in Annapolis for approval. Project details were presented by W. J. McWilliams, legal representative of the Weiner Brothers of Odenton, sponsors of the development.

The community will be east of Ft. Meade and approximately 1½ miles south of Odenton.

It will include housing for approximately 3 thousand families, schools, churches, civic center, parks, and recreational areas.

Two parks of about 60 acres are planned at the southwest end of the major shopping center, close to two apartment areas, and adjacent to one of the elementary schools.

Some 60 acres along the westerly edge of the Community are planned to be allotted for use by supporting community services and light industries of a clean nature.

In its initial phases the development will start with a few apartment buildings, 100 or more single family dwellings, a portion of the main shopping center, and a unit of an elementary school, along with the necessary sewage facilities.

Work on the project is expected to begin within a year if approval is given by the County Board, and completion will coincide with our move to the "New Site."

ADDITIONAL HOUSING INFORMATION

Another housing development is Annapolis Roads, located at the point where the Severn River meets the Chesapeake Bay. There are approximately 130 building lots for sale, ranging in price from $700 to $3,000. These lots surround a nine-hole golf course. Houses will be constructed on order, either by the builder connected with the project or by any builder of the lot owner's choice. Cost of homes in this development will begin at $15,000. This property is about 22 miles from the NSA Fort Meade site.

The Meadow Lane Apartments in Halethorpe, Maryland are available for immediate occupancy. These two-bedroom apartments are 15 minutes from downtown Baltimore and 25 minutes from Fort Meade.

TENTATIVE COMMUTERS' SCHEDULE TO MEADE

An agreement to work out tentative schedules and rates for commuters to Ft. Meade was obtained from several transportation officials by the Personnel Task Unit.

The following public transportation services were contacted: Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, Pennsylvania Railroad, Greyhound Bus Company, Capitol Transit Company, Trailways Incorporated, Annapolis-Baltimore Transit Company, Arnold Lines, and AB&W.

A definite interest in providing such transportation was expressed by officials of these companies.

NEW POSTERS PRINTED

A new series of posters, giving information on the move to Fort Meade, will be exhibited for two weeks each and will coincide with slogans printed on employee's statements of earnings.

THE "MEADEMOBILE" OPEN FOR BUSINESS

The "Meademobile," a special 35 foot trailer set up between "B" building and Headquarters building, AHS, is the new Movement Information Headquarters of the Personnel Task Unit.

Here you will find all publications giving the latest information concerning our move to Ft. Meade as well as a variety of displays. Also, a projector is being procured and colored slides of the "New Site" and of various housing projects within commuting distance of the Fort Meade area will be shown.

The Meademobile is open from 0800 to 1630 hours, daily. If there are housing, transportation, or personal problems you wish to discuss, visit the Meademobile and Mr. Jesse Wisdom, who is in charge, will assist you.

Will Liability Insurance be required for registration of automobiles at Fort Meade?

Persons driving on the Ft. Meade Post regularly will be required to have Liability Insurance. It is also necessary to have liability insurance before a Post sticker will be issued for parking in the Ft. Meade area.

REPORTS OF MARRIAGE

A recent change to the CPM requires that any male employee who marries is responsible for reporting his new marital status to his supervisor who will initiate action to have Agency records reflect this change. For full details see Chapter R1—Personnel Records, figure 24.2.

Persons at Arlington Hall are again reminded that the Buckingham Community is private property and that parking in that area is limited to tenants and their guests. Numerous complaints have been received from Buckingham residents that Arlington Hall Station personnel were using the community parking area to the exclusion of those living there. Lt. Col. John P. Moss, Acting Post Commander, asks those at the Hall to cooperate in alleviating the situation by refraining from parking in the Buckingham area.

Be On Your Guard Against Espionage

The aims of Soviet Russia—as announced at Stalin's funeral—are peace and world communism. At first acquaintance, the two ideas are contradictory—but as we examine the tragic histories of European and Asiatic countries "liberated" by the Communists, we realize that peace and communism may be compatible after all; it all depends upon one's interpretation of "peace." Nothing keeps as quiet as a man—or a nation—that is bound and gagged. And there is nothing more peaceful than a corpse.

With this plan in mind, the Kremlin turned its attention toward espionage in the United States just after World War I. Thirty years later—in 1949—the Soviets were able to explode their first atomic bomb. This success was made possible by their streamlined espionage system in the United States. During those thirty years, Communist spies managed to build up one of the strongest espionage systems in the world. They have compiled information on practically every phase of American life—our industries, our military strength, our key personnel in government as well as civilian work. Recently—too recently for comfort—a nest of spies was cleared out of Washington, D.C. These spies were employed in government jobs where they had access to information which could jeopardize the safety of our country. J. Edgar Hoover, head of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, tells us that it is the avowed plan of Communists in the United States to obtain government positions and to keep moving from one to another. Elizabeth Bendeck, ex-communist, in her book, Out of Bondage, explains how this was done through the recommendation of hidden Communists already in government employ. Where they failed, credit is due to the FBI and their detailed reports of suspected Communists associations.

Unfortunately, some trusting citizens would not heed the warning of the FBI. They refused to believe that the man they had coffee with each day could be a member of the Communists' underground. It seemed fantastic.

Yet, it was fantastic, and unless we are alert to this threat of espionage in every walk of American life, even more fantastic victories will be achieved by the communists underground in this country.

Much of the success of foreign espionage is based on the complexity of their espionage system which does not depend on one or two strategically located spies, but rather on a network of lesser spies and helpers who pass the information on until it arrives behind the iron curtain. A nice motherly woman with a large handbag may be the go-between. She, herself, may not have contacted a government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source—her government employee, but receives the sealed envelope or microfilm from a third source. This ready-made corps of zealous workers, who have pledged allegiance to Moscow, give Communist espionage efforts that streamlined precision.

MASTER spies, working on orders from the Kremlin, can count on many helpers in this country. In addition to party members, they can recruit secret Communist leaders whose names never appear as members of the party; on Communist dominated labor unions, and on Communist "front" organizations which are always dedicated to some good cause like peace, the downtrodden, democracy, freedom, civil liberties or anything else that sounds good enough to attract politically inexperienced reformers or amateur philosophers. Thus, many misguided idealists lend their names or their financial support to Communist "front" organizations and, unknown to themselves, furnish valuable data for the Russian espionage system. Many of these "front" organizations are organized for the sole purpose of stirring up dissension and suspicion among American citizens. As fast as one organization is exposed by the FBI, the underground resurrects it again under some other name. Naturally, the Communists who sponsor these groups have no intention of doing anything for the downtrodden or for anyone else except the Communists.

Your two most dangerous antagonists are (1) the trained spy, and (2) the Communist sympathizer or underground member who, because of his mistaken ideals or his Party discipline, will pass on any defense information to the espionage ring. Because of the "little" people who do the gathering of small items, spies for the Russians during World War II were able to transmit to Russia practically the entire order of the German Army. Their transmissions were, in great measure, responsible for the ability of the Russian Army to make their successful stand before Moscow.

Somewhere at this moment, an enemy is sending a message to his boss behind the Iron Curtain. Is that information in his possession because of our carelessness? Through our carelessness the enemy builds his stockpile of information about our Government, our state of preparedness, our manpower, and our defense strength. This information the enemy most certainly will use against us to confuse our diplomatic relations, to tie the hands of our ambassadors abroad, to leave our State Department holding an empty sack in any international contest. Defense information in enemy hands can be the trigger that sets off the Third World War. That is what we mean when we say, BE ON YOUR GUARD AGAINST ESPIONAGE!

On the same night at Thomas Jefferson, the Chiefs defeated the Blues 20–5 and the Nine to One’s whipped the Earthworms 7–6.

Rounding out the league openers, the Pirates trounced the Thunderbirds 14–3 at Stonewall Jackson field.

The final Agency league opened on Monday, May 24 at the American University field in Washington.

At this opening game the All-Stars served notice to the rest of the leagues by downing the Eagles 3–2.

Athletic Coordinator Paul Hunter says, “the league competition is wide open this year. I’m looking for a close race all the way in all four leagues.”

R/D’s bowling match, the result of a challenge issued by R/D’s three NavSecSta teams to R/D’s AHS teams, was played recently at Rosslyn with the NavSecSta teams winning 6 out of a possible 9 points.

Dr. Kullback, Mr. Rose, and Major Phipps, NavSecSta captains, received the “High Game,” “High Set,” and “Least Number of Points” trophies for their teams.

Mr. Charlie Schierleman, Mr. Nathan Christopher, and Mr. William Cole, AHS team captains, were presented the “Crying Cup,” consolation trophy.

SCHOOL TEACHES TEACHERS TO TEACH

A 40-hour intensive course in teaching methods, scheduled to start at the NSA School 2 June, will provide lecture and laboratory instruction in lesson preparation and presentation, the use of audio and visual aids, testing and evaluation of test results, and a quick look at educational psychology and the administrative role of the teacher.

All NSA personnel now engaged in teaching or planning to teach are eligible for the classes which will meet in three four-hour sessions each week. Those who are interested in enrolling should contact the training officer in their division. Classes are limited to 15.

The teacher training program is designed to provide capsule instruction in the fundamentals of classroom teaching for those who have not had formal educational training or experience, and at the same time to act as a refresher for those trained in teaching techniques. The aim of the course is to simplify and expedite the work of the instructor as well as to make the teaching more effective.

Laboratory work-sessions on lesson planning, construction of visual aids, presentation of the lesson, and test construction will provide practical experience for the participants. Additional information can be secured by calling Mr. Jones, Ext. 60662, or Mrs. Binks, 66937.

The TB Chest X-ray Mobile will be at the AHS Fire House on 17, 18 June and 21–25 June. All employees are urged to take advantage of this opportunity and have X-rays made. Ask your supervisor for an appointment.

Reports of the X-ray will not be given to each employee if the X-ray is negative.

Conferences are an integral part of the day-to-day activities of all supervisory personnel in the National Security Agency. Since the effectiveness of a conference depends, to a large extent, on the ability of the conference leader to stimulate the thought of participants and to guide the discussion, it is only fitting that some assistance in developing this ability be given to all supervisory personnel in the Agency.

The Conference Leadership Course described below provides such assistance. Additional information concerning the course may be obtained from the Training Division, extension 00662.
