DIRECTOR OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE DIRECTIVE 3/12

FOREIGN ECONOMIC INTELLIGENCE
(Effective 1 June 1992)

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 102 of the National Security Act of 1947 and Executive Order 12333, an Economic Intelligence Committee is herewith established.

1. Mission

The Committee, in consultation with the Chairman, National Intelligence Council, will advise and assist the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) in the discharge of his duties and responsibilities with respect to the production of foreign economic intelligence and will promote the effective use of Intelligence Community resources for this purpose.

2. Functions

Under the general guidance of the Chairman, National Intelligence Council, the Committee will:

a. keep the DCI apprised of both ongoing and new collection and analysis efforts that respond to his overall tasking requirements in the economic security area;

b. provide guidance to Intelligence Community collection components; and

c. review Intelligence Community-wide efforts against the international economic security target, recommending modifications where appropriate.

3. Intelligence Community Responsibilities

On request by the Committee Chairman, Intelligence Community components will provide, within established security safeguards, information pertinent to the Committee's mission and functions.

4. Composition and Organization

The Committee Chairman will be appointed by the Director of Central Intelligence.

The members of the Committee will be representatives designated by Intelligence Community principals.

The Chairman will establish subcommittees and other working groups as required.

With the approval of the Chairman, National Intelligence Council, the Committee Chairman may invite representatives of relevant United States Government entities with national security interests to participate as appropriate.

The Committee will be supported by an Executive Secretariat.
