NATIONAL SECURITY STUDY MEMORANDUM 32

TO: The Secretary of State
 The Secretary of Defense
 The Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: United States Policy Toward Cuba

The President has directed that a study be prepared summarizing the current situation in Cuba, the advantages and disadvantages of our present policy, and the policy options that may be open to us. This study may be based upon and utilize the work already done in the recently completed National Policy Paper on Cuba.

The President has directed that the study be prepared by the NSC-IG for Latin America and submitted to the NSC Review Group by April 11, 1969.

Henry A. Kissinger
